He looked [F] down into her brown eyes
And said [F] "Say a prayer for [C7] me"
She [C7] threw her arms around him
Whispered [C7] "God will keep us [F] free" [F]
They could [F] hear the riders comin' [F]
He said [F] "This is my last [Bb] fight
If they [Bb] take me back to Tex-[F]as They won't [C7] take me back a-[F]live" [F]

CHORUS:

There were [F] seven Spanish angels
At the [F] altar of the sun [C7] / [C7]
They were [C7] prayin' for the lovers
In the [C7] valley of the gun [F] / [F]
When the [F] battle stopped and the smoke cleared
There was [F7] thunder from the [Bb] throne [Bb]
And [Bb] seven Spanish an-[F]gels
Took a-[C7]nother angel [F] home [F] / [F] / [F]

She reached [F] down and picked the gun up [F]
That lay [F] smokin' in his [C7] hand
She said [C7] "Father please forgive me
I can't [C7] make it without my [F] man" [F]
And she [F] knew the gun was empty
And she [F] knew she couldn't win [Bb]
But [Bb] her final prayer was [F] answered
When the [C7] rifles fired a-[F]gain [F]
